Long Gone

Bill Heath of Homewood, Ill., pilots The Long Gone to victory yesterday in the Eastern division power boat championships at Eastwood park. By far the best in its class—the seven litre—The Long Gone was the talk of most of the 15,000 fans who basked in a hot June sun to watch the event. (Story on Page 16)

THE SECOND ANNUAL REGATTA, sponsored by the Dayton Motor Boat Racing Association to obtain funds for the Barney Children's Medical Center, continues at noon today at the lake on Routes 4 and 69 at Harshman Rd. Boat racers in nine classes from throughout the U.S. are expected to compete in the Eastern Divisional championship event. Admission for adults is one dollar. Children under 12 will be admitted free when accompanied by adults.
