

Daily News Photo by Dennis Gordon

WILL SOMEONE GET ME OUT OF HERE?

Thomas Powell, piloting the Glee Maker in the 280 class during Saturday's inboard hydroplane races at Eastwood Lake park, ran into shallow water and found himself in the drink. The right sponson of his craft scraped bottom and he was forced to leap into the water when his engine became awash.